You might feel like you're working toward a date. Or maybe it's a savings goal. Or maybe you're looking for a sign. Bottom line, if you're like most Americans, you're working toward retirement; a period of your life you hope will look something like a "happy ever after." But how are you going to get there? In "The Happy Ever After," John Navin takes on the challenges we face in retirement, drawing on his life experience, his role as an investment advisor and owner of John Navin & Associates, and his more than 20 years in the investment and annuity industry. While his professional training is largely financial, John has learned there is more to well-being than just a strong portfolio. After all, how much good is a well-funded retirement if you are unable to enjoy it? John's emphasis on total balance - personal, financial and physical - is key to what he does every day, helping people in the pursuit of "The Happy Ever After."

Forget everything you ever "thought" you knew about your retirement! The only question now is, in retirement, will you Thrive, or Survive?
