This Book of Quotes includes important phrases by Frida Kahlo and Diego Rivera selected and translated by Maria Tsaneva in corresponding English-Spanish paragraphs. The book is excellent way to read Paragraph by Paragraph Translation as each individual English paragraph is paired with the corresponding Spanish paragraph. The paragraphs are not long, so there is no need to do a lot of back and forth to see the English translation and the Spanish text. Frida and Diego was a legendary couple, they both were revolutionaries and artists. Although Frida lived in the shadow of Diego, and shared his ideals, she created a painting entirely personal, metaphorical and naive derived from her exalted sensibility.

Miguel de Unamuno, philosopher, writer, and academic, has a central position in early 20th century Peninsular Spanish letters, yet his importance in a wider intellectual and literary context has remained largely unrecognized. This study re-contextualizes Unamuno, by revising the concept of his intellectual parameters, and by including analytical essays on seven of Unamuno's major literary texts.

This biography offers a fresh understanding of the life and work of Spanish composer Manuel de Falla (1876-1946), recognized as the greatest composer in the Spanish cultural renaissance that extended from the latter part of the 19th century until the outbreak of the Spanish Civil War in 1936. The biography incorporates recent research on Falla, draws on untapped sources in the Falla archives, reevaluates Falla's work in terms of current issues in musicology, and considers Falla's accomplishments in their historical and cultural contexts.
